

LiveScot

Lanark Agricultural Centre

Friday and Saturday 22nd and 23rd November 2024

The snowstorm didn't stop Taylor Holloway, claim the supreme cattle champion title at LiveScot 2024, with his British Blue cross heifer, Calypso.

This 704kg home-bred heifer, went on to make £6200 in the sale ring when selling to B and T Kitson, Yorkshire.

Overall reserve went to the steer champion, Baby Rambo, a 606kg Limousin cross from Wilodge, Shifnal, which later sold for £4200 to Bowland Foods Ltd.

Wilson Peters' 568kg Limousin cross heifer, Farrah Moan, lifted the housewives choice champion, and went on to realise £3400 when selling to J and H Cairns Butchers Ltd.

From the unaltered classes, the champion was a 570kg Aberdeen Angus steer from George McFadzean. Runner up was a 614kg Limousin cross heifer from C Smith and son, which was purchased by WM Frasers Butchers.

At the end of the day, 32 cattle cashed in at £2524.02, 12 unaltered cattle averaged £2255.19 and three calves averaged £1316.67. This was followed by the 44 Lanarkshire Young Farmers' calf rally entries, which averaged £2053.28.

Among the sheep, John Guthrie, Cultburn, secured the top two tickets. The supreme went to a pair of untrimmed lambs weighing 48kg. They later sold to the judge, Willie Shearer, Burnbrae, Strathaven, for £360 per head.

Runners up were a pair of 46kg Beltex lambs, which went on to make £280 when selling to local butchers, MJ Stark Ltd.

Supreme among the Blackface was a pair of 48.5kg from Angus Kennedy, Mitchellhill, which also sold to the judge, Willie Shearer, for £215.

Firm of Shawhead produced the best pen of sheep in the Cheviot section, which went on to make £172 for a pair of 47.5kg South Country Cheviots, when being knocked down to R Lawson.

In total 220 lambs sold to average £149.23 per head.

On the Friday evening, the pedigree calf inter-breed was won by the Limousin bull, Graham's Upbeat, from R and J Graham. Runner up went to Mr and Mrs Alford's Aberdeen Angus heifer, Foxhill Princess Caroline.

Along in the sheep lines, it was a Blue Texel ewe lamb from Firm of G Gray, Sunnycroft, that took the MV champion, which was closely followed by a Texel ewe lamb from Alan Clark, Garngour.

The non-MV section was won by a Bluefaced Leicester tup lamb from A and A Kirkpatrick, Barr, with the blue and white rosette going to J Guild, Laight with a Mule ewe lamb.
